NEWS RELEASE
Directives Regarding Liturgical Practices During the 2019 Flu Season

ALBUQUERQUE – Monday, January 14, 2019—IMMEDIATE RELEASE—New Mexico is one of the states listed by the U.S. Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high Influenza-like Illness (ILI) Activity.

Due to the severity of the flu season, the archdiocese will be taking the following steps in regards to the celebration of Mass:

- During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.
- When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
- Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host and not the Chalice.
- The celebrant of any Mass in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is to encourage the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands. Please note, many liturgists believe the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands is considered more appropriate liturgically than receiving the Consecrated Host on the tongue. This directive is aimed at limiting contact with saliva, thus limiting the spread of the flu virus.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an antibacterial gel can be used.
- If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

Please note the reason for these directives is to limit the spread of influenza and to save lives.
Please pray for all who have lost their lives as a result of the flu, and may we do our part to prevent its spread.

These directives will be revoked when the situation improves.

For more information, please contact the Office of Worship at 505.831.8128 or the Office of the Vicar General at 505.831.8158—END

Jornada de Fe
On Saturday February 2nd from 9 AM -3 PM Joel Hopko will conduct a session on "Models of the Church/Vatican II" for Jornada de Fe. The session will be held at the Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish School Class Room 1 and will include a pot luck luncheon. The Second Vatican Council, which officially ran only from 1962-1965 has had a profound influence on the Church and the world. But even now -- 50 years later -- Pope Francis asks: "Have we done everything that the Holy Spirit asked us to do during the Council?" In this session Joel Hopko will present an in-depth review of Vatican II using a series of short DVDs distributed by the Archdiocese followed by focused prayer, reflection and discussion.

Baptism Classes in English & Spanish
Two classes are required. The classes are usually on the first two Wednesdays of every month. They begin at 6:30 p.m. in “Crispin Hall” across from the Parish office. For the month of February the classes will take place on the 6th and the 13th and for the month of April on the 3rd and the 10th. To attend the Baptismal classes, please pre-register at least one week before the date of the first class by calling the Baptism office at: 955.8868 or via text message at 505.795.6498; make sure to include the name and phone number of each person attending the class. Thank you. Para instrucciones en Español por favor hablar con Enedina Gamboa a los números mencionados, gracias.

A Cathedral Factoid - From Your Docent Ministry

Last month we discussed some of the history of our beautiful stained-glass windows. There is more to them than you might think. For instance, find the window with St. Mark. At the bottom is the name of R.C. Kerens. You might think that R.C. Kerens donated money for that window in 1879, and you would be correct. But who was R.C. Kerens and what interest did he have in the Cathedral? After all, he was not a resident of Santa Fe.

R.C. Kerens was the General Manager of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway. The AT&SF came only as close as Lamy, but a publicly-funded spur line from there served Santa Fe beginning in 1880.

Kerens had a brother in the area, a Franciscan Friar, whom he honored by donating the St. Matthew window, but he also wanted something else. Kerens asked Archbishop Lamy’s permission to use the Cathedral colors of red and gold on his train engines. While Kerens could have simply used the colors after he saw them, out of respect for Archbishop Lamy he asked permission. The Archbishop granted Kerens’ request, and from that point on the great locomotives of the AT&SF Railway were painted in those colors. There are plenty of photos of these locomotives around town particularly in the La Fonda. Why would Kerens want to use the Cathedral colors? Why did a corporation want its engines to display the Christian cross with “Holy Faith” written in Spanish?

Fast forward to present times. The AT&SF Railway was acquired by Burlington Northern Railway in 1996 and the name was changed to BNSF (Burlington Northern Santa Fe). Driving along I-40 you may look over at one of many BNSF freight trains that traverse the southwest. Their locomotives still don the Cathedral colors albeit a bit darker. But those locomotive colors started here, in your Cathedral, 140 years ago.

If you would like to become a Docent Minister, we need you. We will teach you everything you need to know plus you will be changing tourists into pilgrims. Please call Stanley Robb at 909.936.1941 or email stanleyrobb@msn.com.

Service to the altar extends into the world, where the reality of the love of Christ intersects with everyday life. Since its inception, the society has served the altar of the church and extended its vision to “the altar of the world” through works of social justice, which are more urgent than ever, along with the care of the altar and the laundry.”

A story of the 100 year history of the St. Francis Altar Society of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi

A story for those in ministry
A story of personal devotion
A story of things that change and endure
A story of the call to follow Jesus Christ

Wildflowers and the Call to the Altar is a fascinating story of the history of the St. Francis Altar Society, embedded within the tri-cultural nexus of Santa Fe, New Mexico. For close to a hundred years, the society responded to the call that the church, established in 1610, required a formal Altar Society to care for the sanctuary needs, yet also to address the personal sanctification of the members. Since its inception, the society has served the altar of the church and extended its vision to “the altar of the world” through works of social justice, which are more urgent than ever, along with the care of the altar and the humility. There is room for the holiness and dignity of women to serve the church. Under the mantle of humility and the commitment to mission, the women of the St. Francis Altar Society have persisted like the women at the foot of the cross. They have embraced the call to ministry and discipleship extended to all in the Gospels. Service to the altar extends into the world, where the reality of the love of Christ intersects with everyday life.

Skya Abbate is a doctor of Oriental medicine in New Mexico. She holds multiple master’s degrees in sociology, pastoral studies and bioethics and health policy. She has been the most longstanding president of the St. Francis Altar Society (fourteen years) and serves in many parish ministries. She is the author of seventeen books in areas that include medicine, spirituality, nonfiction, and children’s books (which she also illustrated).
