When the people in the synagogue heard this they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

NEWS RELEASE

Directives Regarding Liturgical Practices During the 2019 Flu Season

ALBUQUERQUE – Monday, January 14, 2019—IMMEDIATE RELEASE—New Mexico is one of the states listed by the U.S. Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high Influenza-like Illness (ILI) Activity.

Due to the severity of the flu season, the archdiocese will be taking the following steps in regards to the celebration of Mass:

• During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.
• When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
• Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host and not the Chalice.
• The celebrant of any Mass in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is to encourage the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands. Please note, many liturgists believe the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands is considered more appropriate liturgically than receiving the Consecrated Host on the tongue. This directive is aimed at limiting contact with saliva, thus limiting the spread of the flu virus.
• Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an antibacterial gel can be used.
• If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

Please note the reason for these directives is to limit the spread of influenza and to save lives. Please pray for all who have lost their lives as a result of the flu, and may we do our part to prevent its spread.

These directives will be revoked when the situation improves.

For more information, please contact the Office of Worship at 505.831.8128 or the Office of the Vicar General at 505. 831.8158—END

Communion to the Homebound

We need more volunteers! Deacon Bill’s ministry takes the Eucharist to the homebound and prays with them weekly. Volunteers travel in twos – no experience necessary. The schedule is very flexible on Friday mornings and requires little time - 1/2 to 1 hr., but means so much! If you can help a couple of times a month or if you need this ministry, please contact Deacon Bill at 505.471.0554 or send an email to dcn@cbsfa.org.

The Catholic Theology Study Group

We will meet at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 9 at Drexel Hall on the grounds of the Cathedral. The readings will be from 2014 United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, Chapter 23 and Chapter 24. These chapters are an excellent summary of the foundations and principles for living a Christian moral life.
