Thank You and Farewell

Dear Parishioners,

I am exceedingly thankful to have had the honor and privilege to serve the church family at The Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi and the Christo Rey community. Walking side-by-side, and guiding the youth of these church communities has been a wonderful, rewarding, and faith-filled experience. The youth have been an integral part of my growing faith and I believe I have had a positive impact on them. I will always keep them close to my heart.

The youth are the present/future of the church and the youth that I have had the honor of guiding are amazing souls who love God and strive to serve Him daily in their lives. I pray that our young teens continue to participate in the church community, and, most importantly, to serve our dear Lord.

Blessing to you all…
Liz Gallegos
