Each year on the Feast St. Francis of Assisi (our Archdiocesan Patron Saint - Oct. 4) Archbishop Wester recognizes great lay leadership in the parishes of our Archdiocese. He asks each pastor to nominate people who have shown great love and care of their parish community, Fr. Tim is pleased to announce this year’s recipient of the award is Robert Gonzales.

Robert Gonzales is a lifelong member of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis. He has participated in multiple ministries for 25+ years including being an integral part of the Cathedral Basilica Music Ministry. Robert Gonzales spearheaded the Cathedral’s Security Ministry in 2015. He has used his expertise from his daytime profession at Los Alamos National Laboratories to set the foundation of this ministry. We are proud of Robert and very grateful for his selfless generosity of time and talent which has added so much to the faith community of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis.
