30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’” - Lk 18:13

“El publicano, en cambio, se quedó lejos y no se atrevía a levantar los ojos al cielo. Lo único que hacía era golpearse el pecho, diciendo: ‘Dios mío, apiádate de mí, que soy un pecador’.” - Lk 18, 13

In Loving Remembrance

During the month of November we remember all those who have gone before us into eternal life. We are asking you to bring a picture (5x7) of a loved one that has passed away. Please bring your picture and place it in the Archbishop’s Memorial. The pictures will be displayed as a part of the prayerful environment during the month of November.

All Soul’s Day Memorial Candles

The Catholic Church adopted the use of candles early in its history. Today, in our Catholic churches there are sections for the lighting of candles for intercessory prayers, and for deceased loved ones and others. Candles are important in Catholic rites and ceremonies. At Baptism the Paschal Candle is lit and from that flame a lighted candle is presented to the newly baptized — representing the Light of Christ received — the light of faith. At a Catholic funeral the Paschal Candle is again lit to remind all present that the departed Christian received the Light of Christ, the light of faith and thus promise of life eternal through that faith. Candles symbolize life, light, and prayers. They are also used as a sign of reverence and celebration.

In honor of All Soul’s day (Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed), the Office of Worship will have candles available on the weekend of October 26/27. after all Masses for a donation of $5.00. They will be available in the office after throughout the rest of October.

The Memorial Candles can be in honor of a loved one or friend. At the same time it can serve to remind us that our departed loved ones and friends that for them “life has changed not ended” that the light still burns brightly. The Memorial Candle has space to inscribe the person’s name. The candles will be lit on Saturday, November 2, and will continuously burning inside the church for approximately six days. Of course, if you choose you can take the candle with you instead to have burning in your home.

Saturday, November 2nd, Doors open at 5:30p.m., Bingo starts at 6:30p.m.

October 27th, 2019 ~ 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday’s Gospel contrasts two different religious attitudes. First, the self-righteous Pharisee. Here is a man who seems to impeccably follow the law. In some terms, he is the model citizen! Honest, fiscally generous, and faithful to his marriage vows. But something else lurks in his heart: pride. “O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity … or even like this tax collector.” For the Pharisee, no fault can be admitted. The only way to stay on top is to preserve one’s image — even to God, it seems! — and point out the flaws of others from the pedestal.

In the back of the temple, hidden and bowed down, is the tax collector. “O God, by merciful to me a sinner.” This man’s prayer is one of supplication and petition. He isn’t afraid to express his sinfulness and misery. This, Jesus says, is the one who “went home justified.” How many times have we heard the mission of Jesus to seek and save the lost? Jesus is the one who dines with sinners and invites every heart to repentance. But how can we return to him if we don’t know we’ve left? How can we receive God’s grace when we’re adamant we don’t need it?

We all have within us both the Pharisee and the tax collector. We want to be sure of ourselves and to be admired in the eyes of others. Yet we also know that we are not always what we wish to present to others. We can be preoccupied with our self-image and feel anxious about our flaws being exposed. Because we do have flaws, after all. We are the sinner in need of mercy. This Sunday, will we humble ourselves enough to ask for it?
