Today’s readings pose two questions that bring our Lenten journey into focus: “Is the Lord in our midst or not?” and “What are you looking for?”

The First Reading comes from Exodus 17, the early stages of Israel’s forty-year journey in the desert. The Israelites had begun quarreling among themselves and grumbling against Moses, complaining about a lack of food and water. They even tested God, asking whether he was even in their midst. Moses pleads to God for intervention, and God responds by empowering Moses to draw water from the rock for the people to drink. Even though the Lord was indeed in the midst of the community during the desert journey, the Israelites’ fears, intensified by their grumbling and complaining, blinded them to the Lord’s presence.

In today’s Gospel reading from John, Jesus meets a Samaritan woman at the well. With the simple request for her to give him a drink, Jesus initiates a dialogue that intrigues and transforms her. Just as she has come to believe in Jesus the disciples return from their errand to a nearby town. John tells us in an aside that on seeing the woman, they fail to ask her what she is looking for...

Into the Breach

Wednesday at 6:30 PM, Deacon Bill Kollasch at the St Katheryn Drexel Center every Wednesday during lent call for more information 505.470.6071

“Into the Breach” is Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted apostolic exhortation which outlines the challenges faced by men of faith in the world today. Into the Breach is a call to battle for Catholic men which urges them to wholeheartedly embrace masculine virtues in a world at crisis. By reading and discussing Bishop Olmsted’s inspirational words and accompanying study guide, men will prayerfully examine the enormous breach in doing so, they will begin to devise a personal plan of spirituality.
When you are sick, you have no obligation to attend Sunday Mass. For your convenience, starting next weekend, we will be broadcasting the Sunday, 10AM Mass on Facebook. https://www.facebook.com/CathedralBasilicaOfStFrancisOfAssisi/

* Please stay home if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms. If you are ill, you are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday. Out of charity to others, sick individuals should not attend Mass or other liturgical events.

* During the Our Father, folded hands are the liturgical norm. Avoid bodily contact.

* During the Sign of Peace, simply nod your head toward one another. Avoid bodily contact.

* Communicants MUST receive Holy Communion in the hand. Please do not ask to receive on the tongue. The Archbishop grants dispensation to those who attend the Extraordinary Form to receive in the hand during these restrictions.

The archdiocese institutes these directives not to limit expression of faith, but rather as a preventative against widespread and potentially deadly diseases. We continue to be in touch with state and local health authorities and will alter these directives as needed. Let us continue to pray for all who are sick and affected by these virulent diseases.

With every best wish for the good health of all our brothers and sisters and asking our Lord, the Divine Physician, to bless us during this critical time, I remain

Your brother in Christ,
Most Reverend John C. Wester
Archbishop of Santa Fe
